The Sofia bomb shelters become a stage for artists from all over the world. Municipal Cultural Institute "Krasno Selo" - a place we usually associate with the cherished "yes" and dozens of wedding rituals every weekend, but this Saturday we venture into the dungeons and former bomb shelters, where 15 artists from all over the world will show their art.

A visual art scene in search of the collective imagination. This is The Image Generator.

"We are always interested in putting our artists in an atypical environment. I am surprised by the inner beauty of this place," said curator Meryem Bayram.

"These pictures are part of the history of the place and we will see if we can move them to a male choir." I have been living in Amsterdam for 17 years and I am engaged in art," explained Zhana Ivanova.

The Image Generator - Sofia was realized in Bulgaria after the artist Christian Bakalov accidentally fell into the dungeons of the cultural institute.
